

DIGNITY

Rousseau 2012 and DIGNITY: Are We Just Yet?

Events: Lectures and Performance 2012

Portrait of Trilachan Mohanta, Orissa, India 2008 by Johann Rousselot (French, born 1971), Reproduced courtesy of Rousselot and Amnesty International France

All events held in the Annenberg Auditorium,
Snite Museum of Art

All events are free and open to the the public.

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

5:00 pm, Wednesday, January 18

Christie McDonald, professor of French and comparative literature, Harvard University
“Rousseau and Human Rights”
Reception to follow

4:30 pm, Thursday, February 2

Christopher Kelly, professor of political science, Boston College
“Rousseau and the Pursuit of Happiness”

3:00 pm, Sunday, February 5

Performance of opera, Le Devin du village, by Jean-Jacques Rousseau

5:00 pm, Thursday, February 9

Johann Rousselot, photojournalist, Paris, France
tba

5:00 pm, Wednesday, February 15

Serge Margel, professor at the faculty of theology and sciences of religion, University of Lausanne, Switzerland
“On Jean-Jacques Rousseau: Literary Lie and Political Fiction”

5:00 pm, Tuesday, February 28

Jason Neidleman, professor of political science, University of La Verne (CA)
“Rousseau and Religious Liberty”

5:00 pm, Tuesday, March 6

Philippe Brault, photojournalist, Paris, France
“Behind the Story”

Events are made possible in part by a grant in support for the “Rousseau 2012: On the Road to DIGNITY Project” from the Henkels Lecture Fund, Institute for Scholarship in the Liberal Arts, College of Arts and Letters, University of Notre Dame. Additional support has been provided by the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures; the Kellogg Institute for International Studies; the Program in Liberal Studies; the Department of Political Science; the Department of History; the Center for Social Concerns; the Undergraduate Minor in Poverty Studies; the Program in Gender Studies; the Department of American Studies, and the Ph.D. Program in Literature.

