Recurrence

The following statement is mandatory for each published photograph and/or broadcasted film, regardless of the medium: “MEG, Ethnography Museum Geneva, Name of the work, Name of the artist”.

Any use of photographs/films that goes beyond the scope set above constitutes a violation of this authorization, which may result in legal actions and claims for damages. All other rights are reserved.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- It is strictly forbidden to take photos/videos of the Museum staff or of MEG service providers;
- If you wish to take photos/videos of the visitors, it is up to you to obtain directly their consent, as MEG will decline all responsibility in this matter;
- The present authorization only applies to the works, group of works or MEG buildings specifically defined in this document;
- No lighting device in the premises shall be obscured, disconnected or modified;
- No door shall be altered or blocked (open or closed);
- The following areas must remain accessible at all times: fire alarm buttons, emergency exits, escape ways and routes, fire extinguishers, emergency lights, emergency exit and escape route signage;
- The security rules in the secured buildings of the City of Geneva prohibit the capture on any medium whatsoever (including by mobile phone) images of the security systems (devices, wires, control panels, etc.). If applicable, the beneficiary of this present authorization undertakes to take the necessary steps to ensure that any information relating to the security systems which nevertheless appears on the photographs/videos is made invisible (blurred or masked) before any publication/broadcast;
- It is strictly forbidden to eat or drink in the exhibition areas;
- The applicant undertakes to comply with any instructions given by the security staff or MEG staff;
- The applicant is aware of MEG's Visit Regulations and undertakes to respect them;

This authorization may be revoked at any time, without giving any reason.
